Showman link for Entries : <https://showman.app/shows#/norco-fair-2023>
Entries due August 14th, 2023

This year will be the first year in the new barn. Please note that there will not be any ez-up's allowed inside the building. All aisles and doors are to remain clear at all times. No exceptions. All seating must remain around the show ring. We will also provide a few extra stalls for storage.

Please be advised that Dairy and Dairy Goats will be showing Friday, September 1st at 2pm. Your animals will be eligible to be held for master showmanship Saturday September 2nd. This will be determined by both Master Showmanship chairs. Pens will be provided to you.

We will be offering an open ARBA Sanctioned show this year for rabbits. Further details will be provided via our Facebook page.

There will be NO parking on the level this year. The open grass field at Pike's Peak Park across the street will serve as the parking lot for all vehicles and trailers. Please note that you will need a parking pass if parked there after the fair opens at 4 PM.

DEPOSITS: Each club, Chapter, and Independents MUST provide the office with a $100 deposit on Wednesday after set-up to be eligible to show! This is a requirement per Club, Chapter, and Independent.

PAYMENT WITH CASH OR CHECK: All entries must be paid by Wednesday night following setup to the office to be eligible to show.

ADMISSION: No free admission buttons will be provided this year. Admission buttons will be $15 pre-sale and $20 at the gate. The fair button is good for the duration of the fair. Kids 10 and under are free.

PARKING: Parking passes will be available to purchase for $15. These passes will be valid for the duration of the fair.

GENERAL RULES

- Representatives from every club and Independents having animals participating in the Norco Fair are expected to assist in the organization and administration of the Norco Fair Jr. Livestock Show & Auction. This includes all work days prior to the fair and after the fair. Parking passes are handed out at the fairgrounds on Wednesday, August 30th once setup is completed.
- All clubs and Independents will be responsible for a mandatory $100.00 deposit for clean-up due Wednesday night after set-up. Deposit may be refunded as long as 50% of the club is present and upon inspection of clubs assigned areas and animal pens. Failure to clean-up those areas will result in forfeiture of deposit.
- The Norco Fair Jr. Livestock Auction is restricted to FFA, 4-H, Grange, and Independent members in good standing who live in or whose club is chartered in the Corona-Norco Unified School District. Grange members in good standing who reside within the Corona-Norco Unified School District. All exhibitors may sell only one market animal. All exhibitors must be enrolled in the 2023-2024 club year. All breeding classes, table decorating, home arts and educational displays are open to any FFA, 4-H, Independent or Grange member in good standing.
- FFA members may participate as members until the end of the calendar year following their graduation from high school. A graduate is eligible until December 31, 2023.
- 4-H and Grange members may exhibit in the calendar year in which they turn 5 years old by Dec. 31st. and can exhibit as a member until the end of the calendar year in which the member reaches 19 years of age.
- Under no circumstances may an exhibitor enter the same species of animal in FFA, 4-H, Grange and Independent. An exhibitor is allowed to change a species from one organization to the other only once in a calendar year.
- No 4-H, FFA, Grange or Independent member may exhibit a market animal which has been sold as a market animal through any fair or junior livestock auction regardless of a change of ownership.
- Entries must be submitted online by the link provided no later than August 14th, 2023. All Independent members must email Proof of Ownership to the Norco Fair at Norcolivestockshow@gmail.com to be eligible to exhibit.
- Independent Exhibitor: Must be at least 5 years old by December 31st of the program year. Exhibitors are eligible to compete/exhibit through Dec. 31st of the year in which they turn 19 years of age. Independent Exhibitors must provide proof of ownership for their project 30 days (Aug. 1) prior to entry due date on all small market animals, 60 days (July 2) prior to entry due date on all large market animals and 120 days (May 3) prior to entry due date on market beef. They must present to the auction chair 3 photos of their animals with the exhibitor in each photo, front, back and side, no copies. You must turn in required paperwork to be eligible to exhibit.
- There shall be no more than 2 market entries per division per exhibitor. There are limits to the number of animals that may be sold through the auction. (Refer to auction Rule #4).
- Animals entered in a market division CANNOT be entered in a breeding division.
- Each animal must be owned and part of a recognized project of the organization under whose supervision it is developed at least 60 days prior to exhibiting; except for market steers (class 1), where the requirement is 120 days. Large animal prospect class entries, poultry, turkeys and breeding rabbits, must be owned by the exhibitor for 30 days.
- The Livestock committee reserves the right to close classes and refuse additional entries when existing facilities become exhausted. Judges and committee may combine or cancel classes.
- Judges that participate at the Norco Fair cannot be related to exhibitors of the current show. Any judge that participates at the Norco Fair cannot sell market animals to exhibitors of the current show.
- Animals will be accepted and weighed-in between 5:00pm and 8:00pm, Thursday, August 31st, 2023. Proof of ownership and brand inspection paperwork for all market Beef due at weigh in. Each exhibitor will provide a code of ethics. There will be no reweighs unless requested immediately before leaving the scale area. All market animals must be tagged prior to crossing the scale.

16. Exhibitors with breeding animals will be released 1hr after announcing Small Animal Masters results or at the discretion of the Master Chair. The remaining non-auction animals will be released Saturday from 10:00pm and 12:00am. Then again Sunday from 6:00am and 7:00am. Proper paperwork will be required for release of any animal by Barnes and Facility Chair.
17. All exhibitors are responsible for the care, feeding, and watering of their animals until they are removed from the fairgrounds.
18. The Fair management reserves the right to remove from the ring or fairgrounds any exhibitor or animal in case of illness of an animal or misconduct of an exhibitor. Any mistreatment of any exhibitor's animal will bar him/her from further participation in the remainder of the fair and will also result in removal of the exhibitor and all his/her entries from the fair.
19. All parents will be responsible for their children's behavior. Unruly or destructive youth will be removed from the show and their entries will be disqualified and entry fees forfeited. Any parent interfering with the judging process will be removed from the fairgrounds.
20. Written permission must be obtained from the Barns & Facilities Chairperson before removing any large livestock or small market animals from the fairgrounds for any reason. No animal will be allowed to leave before the scheduled time unless it is showing signs of stress, illness, injury, or has a veterinary certificate.
21. No one except for authorized personnel is allowed in the show ring during shows!
22. Exhibitors are required to keep their exhibits clean and appealing at all times throughout the fair.
23. All bedding must be furnished by the exhibitor. No bedding will be furnished!
24. Each club, chapter & Independent will be assigned a specific task for setup and take-down. Each club or chapter will also be assigned an area to maintain during the fair. The Barns & Facilities Chairperson will assign these tasks after the entries are received.
25. In all breed divisions, first and second place of each section MUST compete for its respective Champion and Reserve Champion.
26. FFA, 4-H, Grange, and Independent members will show together in all market and breeding classes, in the appropriate age class.
27. Any exhibitor, who fails to show up for his class, will not be allowed to compete in an alternate class.
28. 4-H primary members (5 years of age or older) may exhibit in the table decorating and home arts, Nigerian dwarf or pygmy goats, rabbit, cavy, turkey and poultry divisions. Independents may also sell rabbits, turkeys, or poultry meat pens.
29. All market animals going through the auction will be required to remain on fairgrounds for the duration of the fair.
30. Protests must be submitted to the Livestock Chairman in writing and signed within 24 hours of an event. They must be accompanied by a $50.00 filing fee. Decisions regarding application and interpretation of rules shall be made through consultation of the fair president, division chairperson and member's leader or advisor. If protest is valid, the member shall be ineligible for the showmanship class. If the protest proves valid, 100% of the filing fee will be returned. Ruling will be made within 24 hours of protest.
31. Any exhibitor parent or legal guardian found in violation of fair rules or who commits any unethical act will forfeit all awards and privileges or whatever deemed necessary by the Livestock Committee.
32. All rules in this premium book will be followed. There will be no exceptions regardless of previous actions or precedents of the Livestock Committee.
33. The signing of the entry form signifies that the exhibitor has read the show rules and understands and agrees to abide by them.
34. Feed gate will be open from 6:00am thru 9:00am Friday thru Sunday.
35. Absolutely NO parking in the fire lanes.
36. Persons MUST be 18 years old or older to drive any motorized vehicle on the livestock level.

SECURITY INFORMATION

Fair Preparation and Setup

All clubs and Independents are required to participate in all aspects of preparation, setup, cleanup & maintaining the grounds throughout the fair.

Security Guidelines

Security watch is mandatory by each club, Independent or chapter unless excused by the livestock board.

Security watch will have a minimum of at least two people from each club, Independent or chapter on duty during their assigned time frame.

Security watch time is from 10:00p.m. to 6:00 a.m. Each club, Independent or chapter that is assigned a night watch may split the time. (For example: a 10:00-12:00 shift, a 12:00-2:00 shift, a 2:00-4:00 shift, and a 4:00-6:00 shift). Each club is responsible to assign security personnel for the assigned watch and forward those names and phone numbers one week prior to the setup of the fair to the Barns/Facilities chairperson or Fair chairperson.

The $100.00 deposit check will be used for or alternate security if the assigned club does not show up for their shift

Security Watch Duties

- * Monitor animals so that none get loose from their stall or pen. In the event an animal becomes loose please report it to Barns & Facilities.
- * Watch for theft; people harming animals, exhibit, or facilities, etc.
- * Watch for animals that may be trying to injure other animals.
- * Check all areas for safety: i.e. broken fences, broken glass, tools not stored properly as to cause injury, etc. and repair or report on the report sheet that will be available.

Barn Duty Requirements

Barn Duty includes the following: Refill all hand sanitizers, Trash Cans emptied and new bags replaced, and all recycling cans emptied. These tasks are your responsibility throughout the entire barn duty assignment.

In an Emergency

Fire:

Call 911. Attempt to put out the fire if it can be done safely. Fire extinguishers and fire hoses are available

Troublemakers:

Call 911. If possible get help from fair security.

Animal Safety Control:

Contact: Katie Vlha
951-407-2778

Loose Animals:

Return to stall or pen if possible. Otherwise, stall or pen temporarily (overnight) in a safe location, such as a show ring and secure the gates.

No Watch Relief:

Call the person that is listed as your relief or call your club or chapter security coordinator.

Safety Concerns

Security personnel should observe good safety practices at all times under no circumstances should they jeopardize their own personal safety for the safety of people, animals, or exhibits.
